

Children will be shown real photographs of both male and female babies.
The photographs will show the different male and female body parts.
These are resources that are taken directly from the RHE Scheme of Work (The Christopher Winter Project).

Male

Female

