

Dear children and adults,

As the Christmas season is just about to start, I was sat at home thinking about that Naughty Elf and some of the things that children were talking to me about yesterday. Do you remember all of the mess he made last year? Thanks to your help, we finally caught him! Do you remember where he was found?

When he was found, I made sure that he was locked in a box in the cupboard in my office using a big padlock. I've attached a photograph for you to see. There was no way he could cause any mischief this year ...or so I thought!

I couldn't believe my eyes when I arrived at school this morning to find.... an empty box and a note and the opened padlock on my desk! Photos are attached.

I have absolutely no idea how he escaped and where he is now. I NEED YOUR HELP AGAIN! Please look out for clues or strange things happening in school and let me know if you see or hear anything unusual.

Thank you for your help. We managed to find him last year, so I am sure we can do it again this year!

Mrs Ziane
