

Morning everyone

You're never going to believe it! When I came into school this morning, I walked into ZenDen 1 and the Elf was on the table Frozen 🧊

How did this happen? 🤖 I quickly rushed to Mrs Ziane's office to watch the CCTV (click on the attachment to see what we see).

I took him to the toilets, dried him off, put him in his bed in a box, taped it shut and locked him away in a safe.

Thanks Elsa!

The Elf is now locked up and can't run around the school any more.

Hooray!!!
