To write a poem

The Adventure of the Sea

Drip, Drop Drip, Drop

goes the window cleaner

As mighty mountains weep lightning and thunder may creep

These tears of the mountains

they fall into ~~the~~ server that ~~are~~ ^{is} grishy ^{ing}

And inside rocks are grishy

How they flow left [↶] right [↷] left [↶] right [↷]

They are spilling into land

But then a man's hand stops them right in there ^{tracks}

How they try to push push push

Until they realise they can't get out

Suddenly, someone twists the water starter getting a refreshing drink

Down

Down

Down the drain they go
How they flow left ^{right} right ^{right} left ^{right}

One minute in that nasty cage

The next minute they are free!

As they are splash splash splashing into land

They make a giant wave

Finally, they are at peace waiting at sea

for the water absorber

to suck them up once more ^{feel}

even though they are sore

They know ^{they have} to keep ~~the~~ keep the water cycle going

So they have to go through the journey again

✓ I can see you have made some improvements.
