

Good Morning Everyone,
You won't believe what I saw when I came to work today! Those naughty elves were in the Year 1 learning base and had been drawing on the phonics cards! 🙈

I tried to catch them but they were too quick for me and they were out the door.

I thought I'd caught them when they stopped for a rest on the Reception trolley.
They giggled and started to swing on the coat pegs so I lost them.

Be careful as they have a pen with them. So they could be mischievous again!

Let's hope they are caught soon!!!

Mrs Imrie
