

Elves Spotted in Nursery!

Those naughty elves really are causing trouble around this school.

This morning when we arrived at nursery, I walked in to find that someone had been drawing all over the nursery children's name cards in the corridor!

I couldn't believe that anyone would do such a thing, but then Mrs Warwick reminded me about what had happened to Mrs Imrie yesterday and how the elves had escaped with a pen!

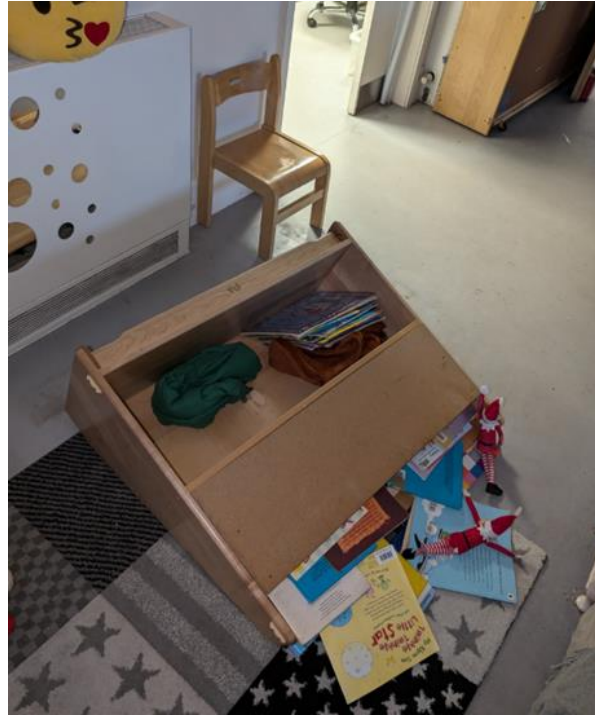

Mr Allen quickly pulled up the CCTV images of them in action, so I knew they were still around.

When we opened the nursery door, we saw them tucked up, fast asleep on the sofa... or so we thought!

Before we knew it they had jumped off the sofa, climbed up the radiator and threw over our bookshelf to stop us catching them. They ran out the door and before we could catch them, they were up and out of the window, leaving us to tidy their mess!

Please keep an eye out for this pair of troublemakers. I am sure that they will be back and who knows what they could do next!
