

I was really excited coming to school this morning because I was thinking there are only 8 more school days left until the holidays!

Unfortunately, when I arrived at school my mood changed because my classroom was in a bit of a mess.

I asked Mr Allen to check the cameras to find out who the culprits were. I had a feeling that those naughty elves were up to no good again. And I was right....

Thank goodness for those cameras!

They were watching a Christmas movie with Dexter Bear and they ordered Domino's pizza (or so they thought)!

Then they got themselves stuck while playing with my Sellotape! Poor Dexter...

After all of that, they must have been tired because they fell asleep in front of the fire using my scarf as a blanket!

To my disappointment, they must have disappeared during the night when it got dark. I'm so annoyed I didn't catch them and lock them away in my drawer!

Keep a look out!

Keep a look out for them children. If you see them let me know!
