

Oh my golly goodness, we could not believe our eyes when we came into school this morning and the TV in RH was smashed!

Thankfully Mr Allen came to the rescue and fixed it so we could still do our morning movement break!

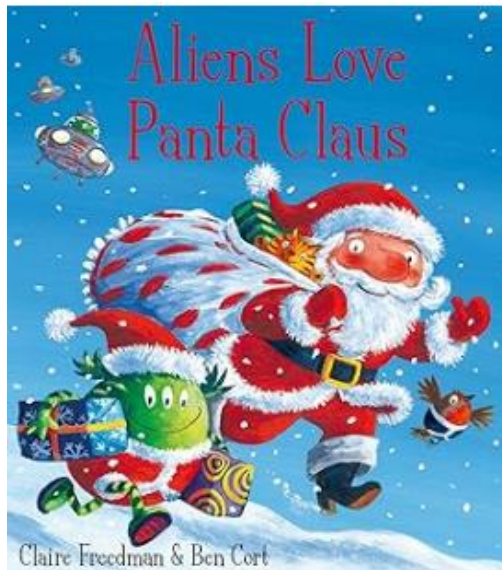

It wasn't until we checked the cameras we realised they had been causing trouble in Reception all night!

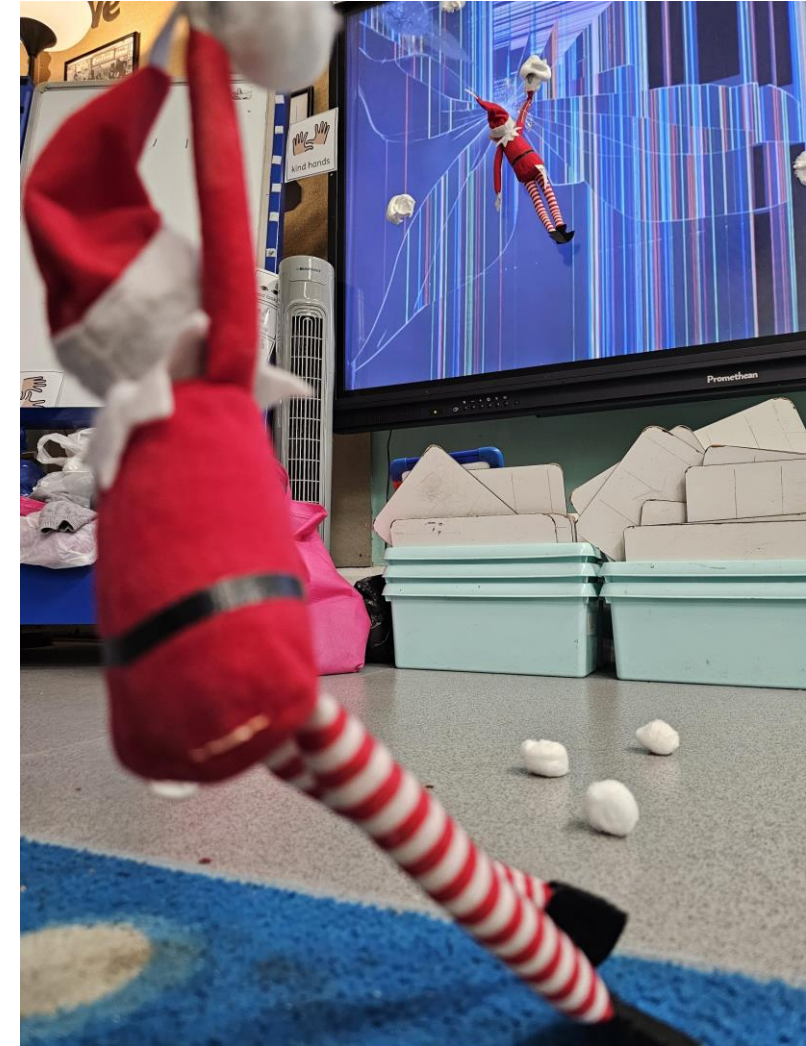

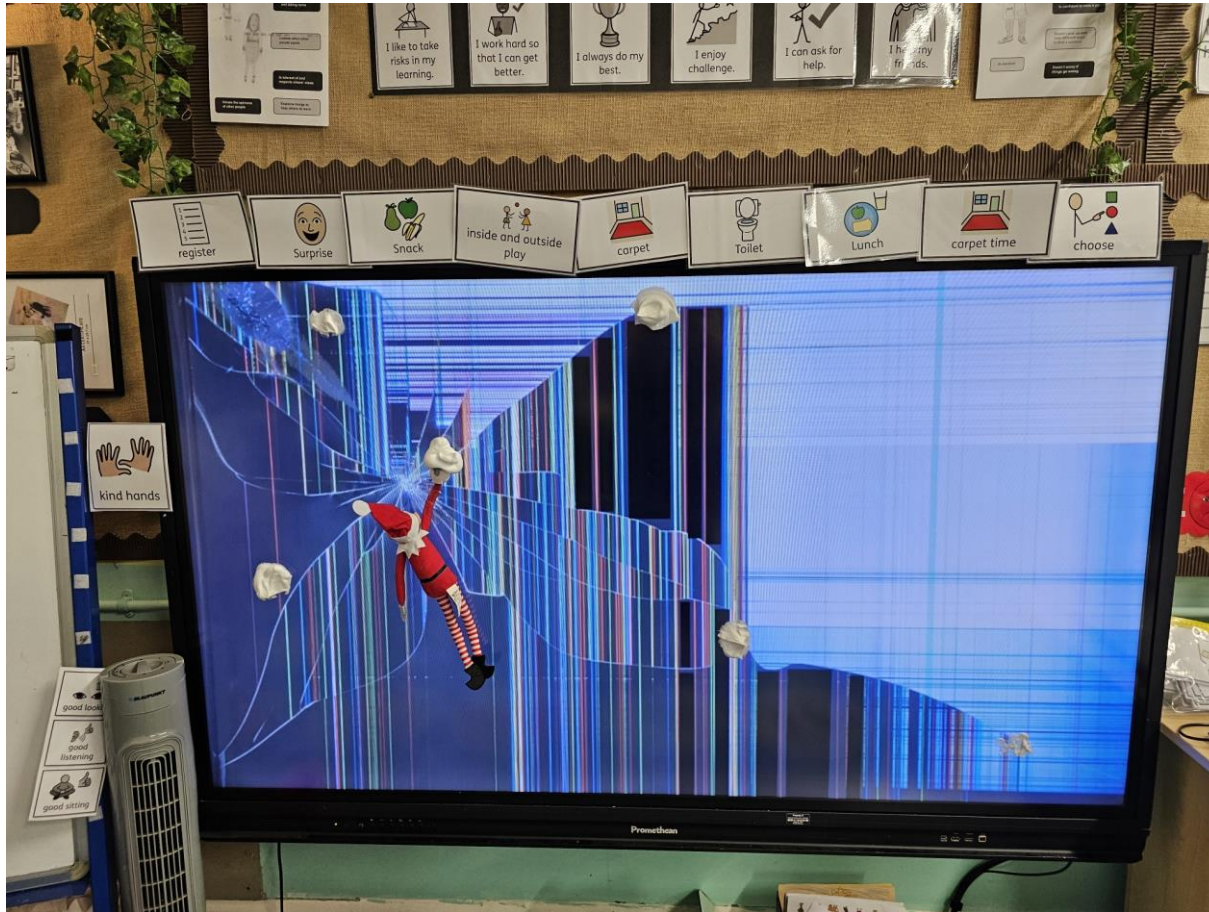

First, a snowball fight in RA, with poor Mickey Mouse being bopped on the nose with a snowball.

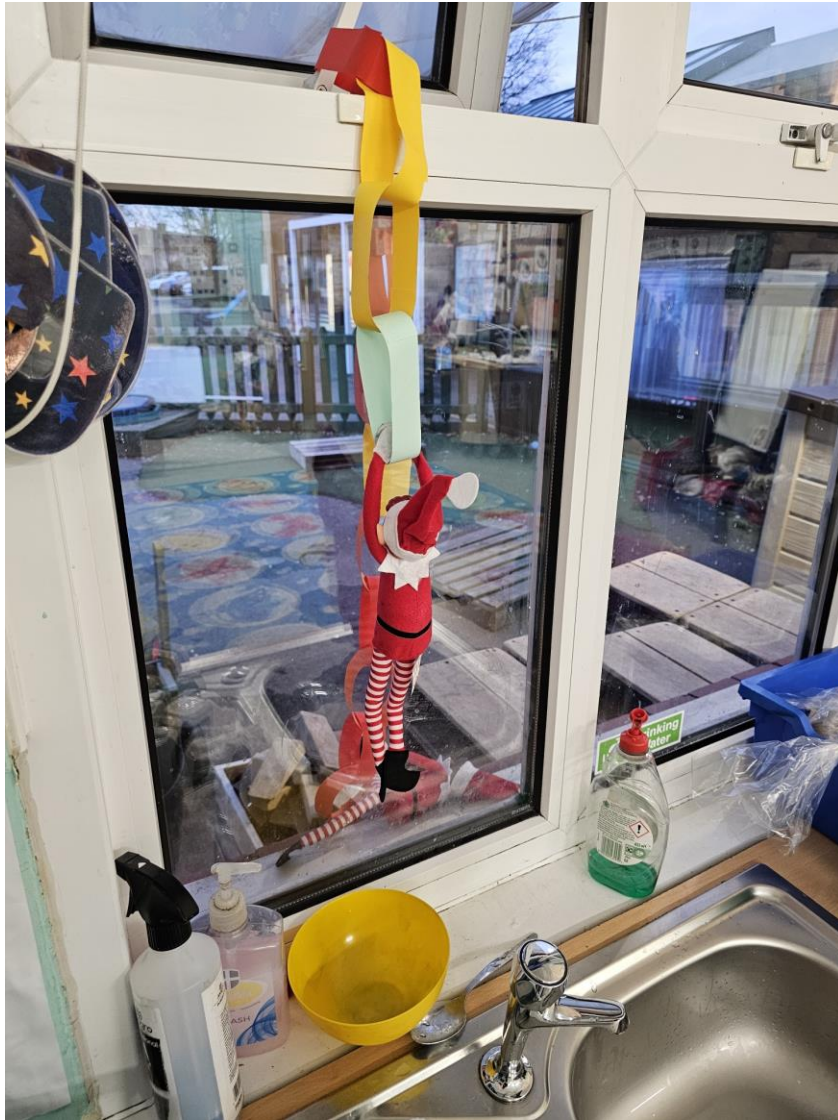

Then decorating Mrs Westwoods Christmas tree in Rainbow room with... PANTS!

I think they have been reading one of our books and thought they would be cheeky.

Then, we caught the exact moment the cheeky pair broke the TV!!!

They must have known they had made a sad choice because they used our paper chains to escape out the window.

But look, one Elf has fallen. Oh no!

It looks like one cheeky Elf might be injured as he was spotted in first aid waiting for Mrs Smallman, but by the time she got into school this morning, he was gone!

Keep your eyes open children they can't keep causing such mischief!
