Name Thirya Class 2/yr6

But then, out of nothing it happened. A chance! He tried his best to score. It was a huge kick and when it hit the hard dusty ground he missed. He felt so ashamed and everyone was laughing at him. He was supposed to show of his skills. Jamie looked around. Dillon shouted at Jamie "Given up have you?"

"No I have not!" Jamie replied angrily.

"Ok, you two break it up," said Mr Marsden. "Both of you back on the pitch now!"

They both jogged back to the pitch.

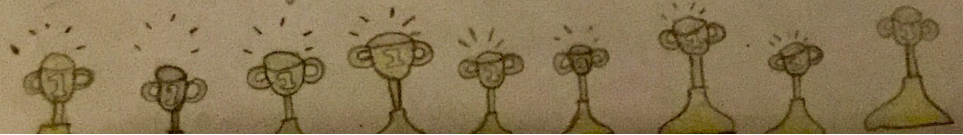
The next thing you know Jamie Thorson had to take a penalty. Even though no one wanted him to because everyone thinks he is a bad player. But actually he is the best player in the team. People were laughing at him because he could not take a penalty. In his mind Jamie Thorson was thinking why everyone was laughing at him and making fun of him. He felt so lonley because people were being rude to him. He was not going to quit until he show who he really is.

He finally got the ball passed to his feet so it was his time to shine. He knew he could do it this time, he was not going to give up. Everyone was cheering for him exept Dillon Simmonds. He could not think of anything exept the ball and him trying to score. His grandad was even watching him and he was so nervous that he was going to give up.

"Looser Looser" shouted Dillon simmonds to Jamie.

But in Jamies mind he was thinking he could do it. Suddenly, he kicked the ball and he scored! Everyone was cheering for him even Dillon Simmonds.

"Good Job!" Said Dillon simmonds

"Thanks" replied Jamie


Dillon and Jamie became friends.
