

Jamie placed his the ball directly in front of him and lifted his feet ^{ready} to strike. But Simmions ^{ran} ~~was~~ to were jamie's ^{was} ~~took~~ ^{is} goal. "What are you doing?" I thought we were on the same team. "Jamie said to Simmions. The coach blew the whistle and said, "one, ^{kick} ~~goal~~ They continued playing. But all of the passes were too high for Jamie he needed ^{ed} a pass on the ground. Simmions kept on trying to score ^{ed} but he could not ~~score~~ either. They continued failing their goals to half time! Once they had had sat down, the coach had a word to the whole team. About getting along with each other because if they don't they won't be able to be on the same team. When the conversation was over the coach said "Get on that pitch and make me proud." He also said "It is one nil can't we do better than that?" So they got out there and they tried to score. Simmions tackled off of the other team he passed it to Jamie. He moves side to side but he ^{does} ~~get~~ it he scores! The other team looked at his exact moves and as soon as the goalkeeper hits it out of the goal. They take the chance to score as they run across the field. But they can't Jamie Johnson tackles ^{he} ~~that~~ is amazing. ^{He} runs to the other side of the pitch and he does it again he scores. Whooo! Everyone went "Yes!" the coach cheered. Then he called them off of the pitch and told everyone that Jamie is in the team. He went and told his friends well most of them because the rest he did not have time to tell. Being in the team was great for Jamie. But will he get along with Simmions?
