

Dear children and teachers,

You'll never believe what has happened to me this morning! I opened my door ready to start the day and was greeted by this! An elf asleep on my table, under a pile of books!

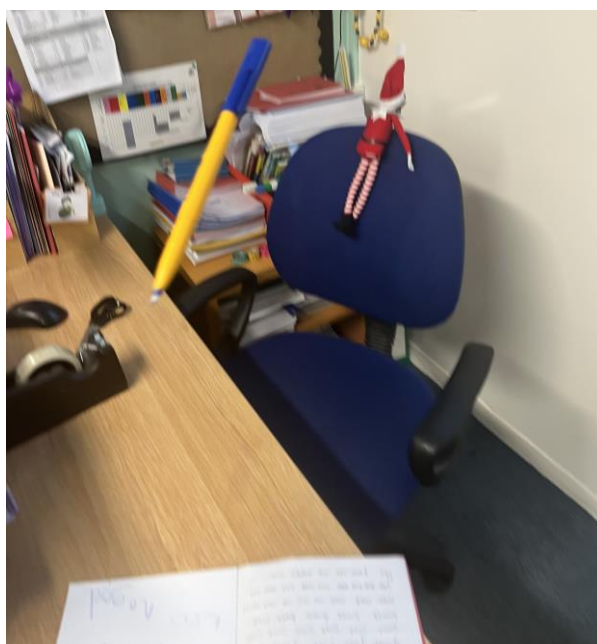

Getting closer, I saw that he had ripped up my respect tickets and used them as a blanket! Poor Panda was even held hostage all night while the elf slept.

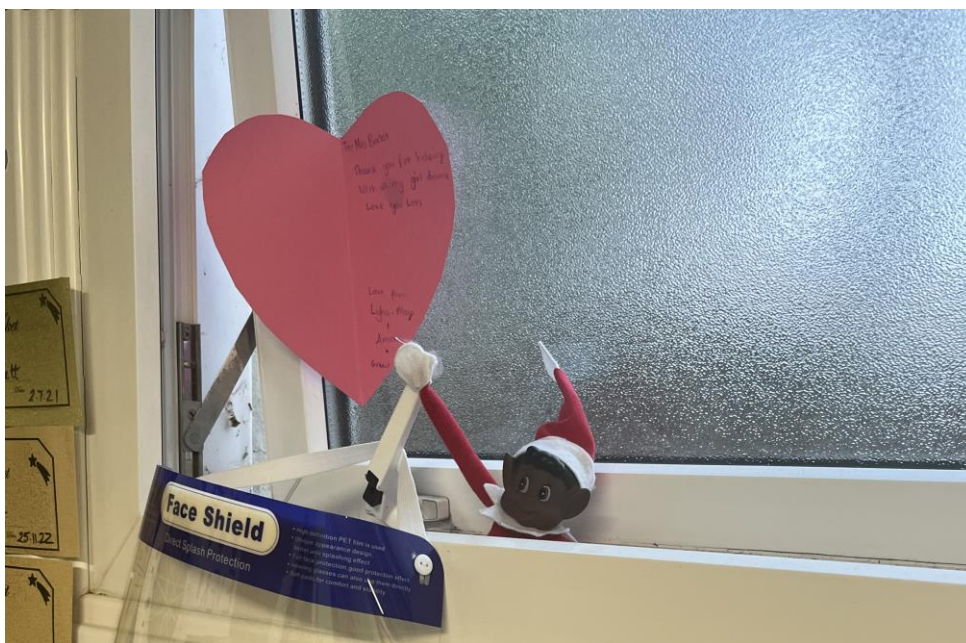

As I went to reach him, the pesky elf woke up, threw panda out of his bed and leapt out of the window. I tried to catch him but he was too fast and escaped before I could even do anything!

Then, I heard a laugh so I turned around and saw another one sitting on my desk!

When I went to see what he was doing, he threw the pen at me and climbed on my chair!

The cheeky elf even waved to me before he too escaped!!

Please children, help us find these naughty elves before they strike again!

- Mrs Beckett