

Children, you'll never believe what I saw this morning. I walked into 1LR and the Elves were having a snow ball fight and cracked my screen!

I couldn't believe it! I panicked because screens are expensive and Mrs Ziane won't be happy. As I was looking at the screen, the Elves quickly escaped and ran away. They must have known I wasn't happy. I really hope the Helpdesk can fix my screen quickly.

Please keep an eye out for these Elves before they damage anything else!

Mrs Lawrence
