

Elliot is having problems at school. Things do not seem to be going well at home. Mrs Patricia Porshley-Plum is putting pressure on the family to sell their home. Mum disappears.

The Zodiac council were having an argument. Pisces wanted someone to deliver ambrosia to an immortal prisoner, No. 42, on Earth. No-one, but Virgo, wanted to do it. They said she was too inexperienced. So, she stole the flask and left Elysium.

Virgo does not know where prisoner no. 42 is. She remembers the council talking about a stone circle and heads towards one.

Meanwhile, Elliot finds mum. We learn that she is forgetting things. The family have a loan to pay back. They don't have the money to pay their bills. The farm may get repossessed if they don't settle the loan soon.

There was a power cut. Looking out of the window, Elliot saw a falling constellation. A plane hit the constellation and it fell through the roof of the cowshed. It landed in a cow pat. The constellation was Virgo. She tried talking to the cow to find out where prisoner no. 42 was. Elliot comes. Virgo got scared, so she picked up a rubber glove to threaten him. Elliot takes pity on her and invites her into the house.

Virgo meets Elliot's mum in the morning. She also sees Stonehenge. Elliot and Virgo left the house and he has tricked her into walking towards the police station where he intends to ask them to call/ find her parents. Virgo proves to Elliot that she is an immortal in the river. She saves Elliot from drowning.

Virgo showed Elliot her Kardia (bronze-heroes, glass-neutrals, silver-Gods, crystals-constellations, gold-Olympians, stone-earthlings). Virgo and Elliot go to Stonehenge in search of prisoner no.42 and Virgo kicked over the heels stone and input a code that Aries uses all the time. The safe opened up and Elliot ran to Virgo and they both fell in to the safe. The safe then locked itself.

Elliot and Virgo meet Prisoner no. 42. They're trapped in the prison with him. They have to move a boulder, but Virgo and Elliot are not strong enough.

Prisoner no. 42 is trying to convince Elliot to set him free by talking about Elliot's mum.

Elliot ignores Virgo's attempts to keep him away from Prisoner no. 42.

Elliot freed prisoner 42. Thanatos, prisoner 42, lied about swearing an oath to help mum. He's really the king of the Daemons. He hurts Virgo and asks Elliot to leave. Elliot doesn't leave. He attempts to make a deal to set Virgo free by exchanging for the ambrosia. Both Virgo and Elliot escape after Thanatos attempts to kill Elliot.

Patricia Porshley-Plum (or Horse-bum) is a spoilt brat and she wants Elliot's home because it's valuable land and will make her a lot of money. She's suspicious of Elliot and his mum and she also knows Elliot stole money from her.

Patricia Porshly- Plum met with Elliot's mum, Josie, to eat tea and cake. She realised Elliot's mum was not mentally okay.
