

Teamwork

Starry-Eyed Stan

twinkl

A vibrant, cartoon-style illustration of an underwater scene. In the background, several small fish of various colors (pink, blue, yellow) swim near the surface. A larger yellow fish with blue stripes and red-rimmed glasses swims towards the right. The foreground is filled with colorful coral reefs in shades of pink, orange, and blue. A group of seven smiling starfish are gathered on the sandy ocean floor. One starfish in the center wears a small white cap with 'I LOVE STAR' written on it. Another starfish to its right wears sunglasses and a grey t-shirt with 'CUR' on it. Musical notes float around the starfish, suggesting they are singing or dancing. The entire scene is framed by a white rounded rectangle.

Read the story of Starry eyed Stan

See other Powerpoint

What Is a Team?

A team is a group of people.

They are normally linked in what they do.

Who Might Work as a Team?

Can you think of any more types of teams?

Photo courtesy of Royal New Zealand Navy, jetstarairways (@flickr.com) - granted under creative commons licence - attribution

How Did the Three Little Pigs Work as a Team?

The three little pigs worked as a team to scare away the wolf.

How Did the Starfish Work as a Team in Starry-Eyed Stan?

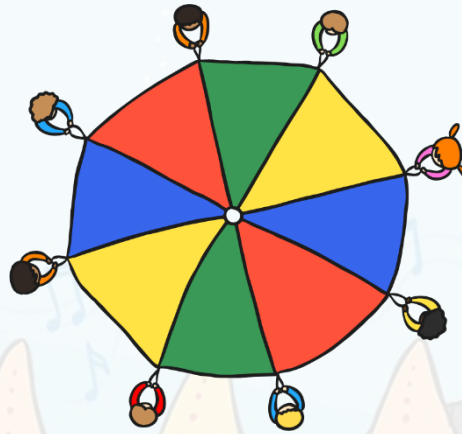

The starfish worked as a team to scare away Lancelot.

When Might You Work as Part of a Team at School?

building with the construction

playing with the parachute

singing

playing team games

tidying up

Can you think of any other times when you might work as part of a team?

Why Is Working in a Team Important?

We can...

- achieve something we cannot do alone;
- complete something more quickly;
- negotiate and compromise with others;
- support those who are finding something difficult;
- share ideas.

Teamwork in Starry-Eyed Stan

- Was Stan good at teamwork at the beginning of the story?

No, Stan thought that he was better than everyone else and wanted to sing alone.

- What made Stan realise that teamwork was important?

Stan realised that teamwork was important when Jay and the other starfish worked together and helped to save everyone from Lancelot. Stan couldn't do it on his own.

- What did Stan do to show that he wanted to work as part of a team at the end of the story?

Stan decided to set up a singing school and a band so that everyone could work together as a team.

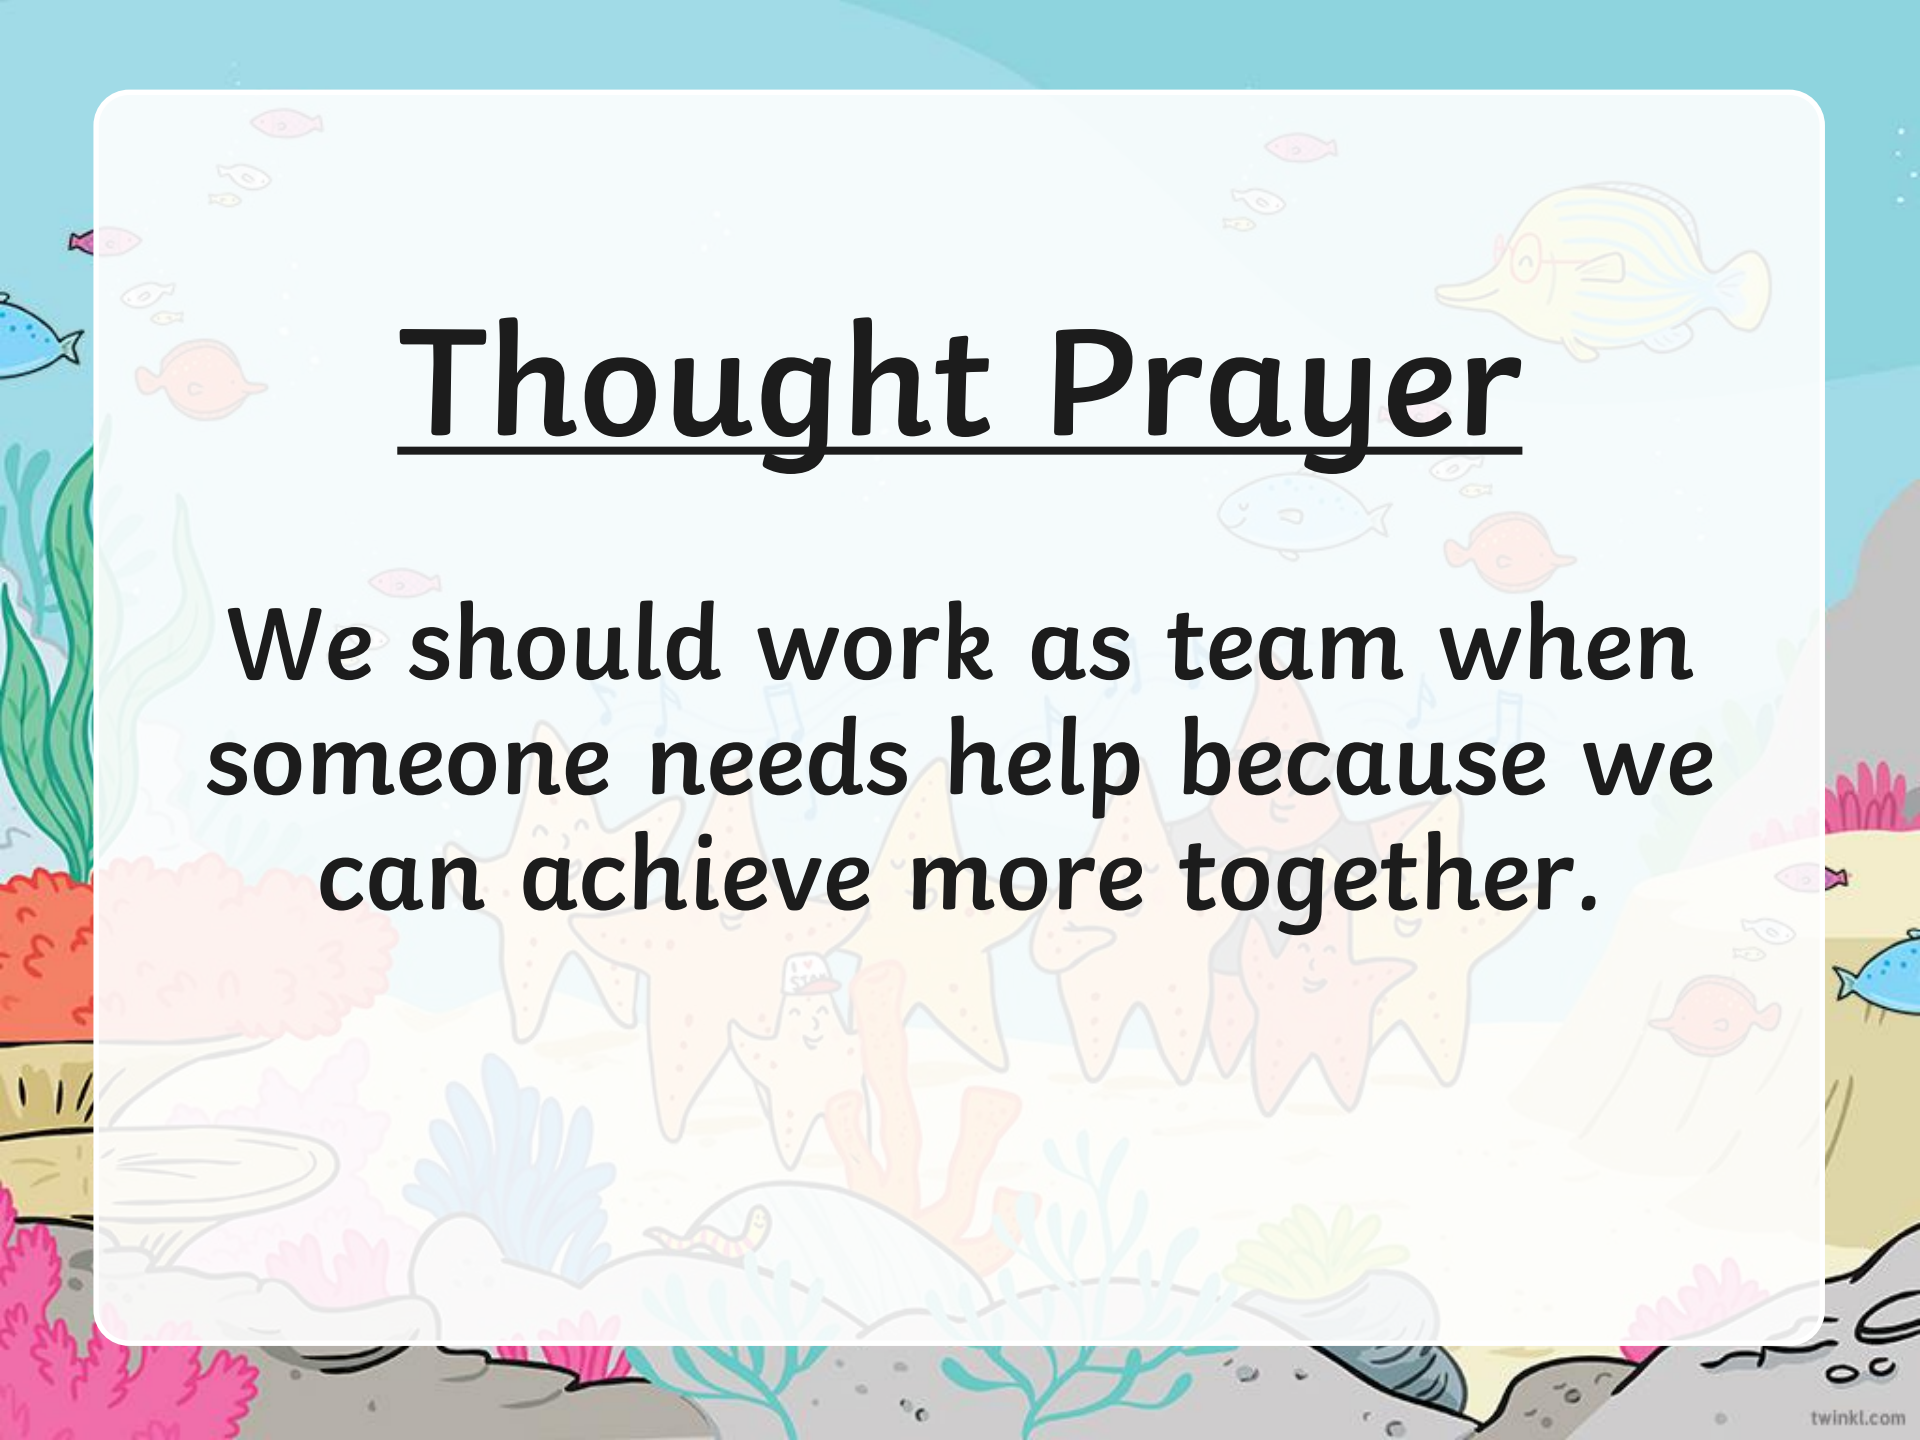

Together

Everyone

Achieves

More

A colorful cartoon illustration of an underwater scene. In the background, there are several small fish swimming. In the foreground, there are larger, stylized fish, including a yellow one with glasses and a blue one. There are also various types of coral and seaweed in shades of green, orange, and pink. The overall style is bright and cheerful.

Thought Prayer

We should work as team when someone needs help because we can achieve more together.

