

Ballet shoes by Noel Streatfeild is one of my favorite books I have read it three times in the past year and loved it so much that I got the 2nd, 3rd and 4th in the series.

This book is about three girls and they were all abandoned as babies. Their names are Pauline, Petrova and Posy Fossil. They start going to ballet class but Petrova hates it. She loves planes and fixing cars. Pauline the oldest is ok with it but would prefer doing drama stuff. The youngest Posy LOVES it! She is really good and her sisters are jealous. Their adopted mother called Sylvia has no idea how she will be able to cope with them and the money she has.

This book gives you loads of different feelings all at once and if you are interested don't stop now go ahead and read it!
