

Cheeky Elves having a party in 1H!

Oh my goodness, I came into school this morning and heard LOUD music coming from the classroom.

I couldn't believe my eyes when I peeped through the window and saw the cheeky Elves having a party in 1H!

They had the music playing SO loud, a disco ball and sooo many snacks! I think they stole a can of Coca cola from my drawer too! They are so mischievous!

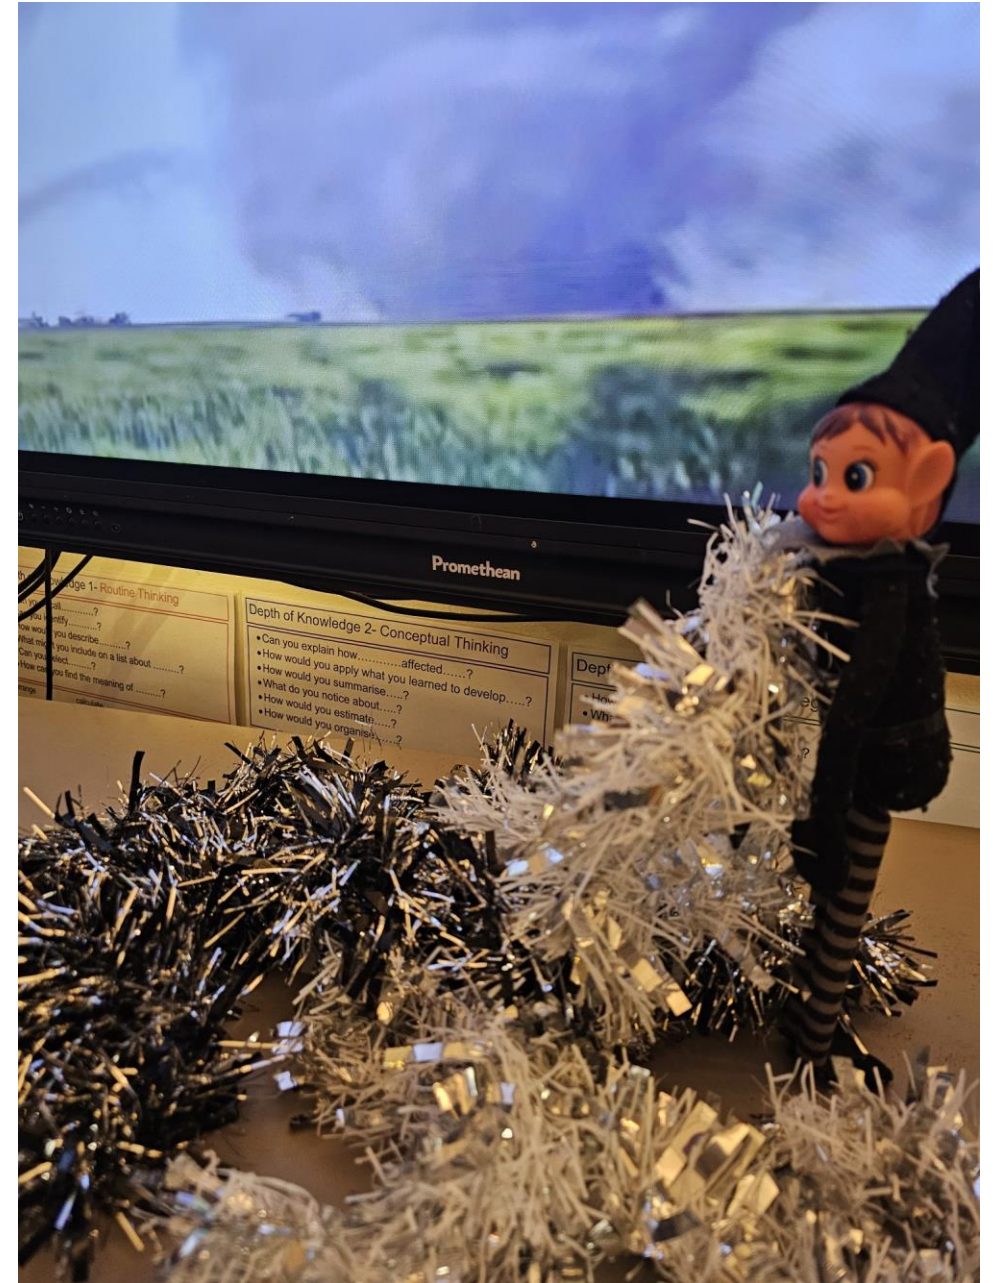

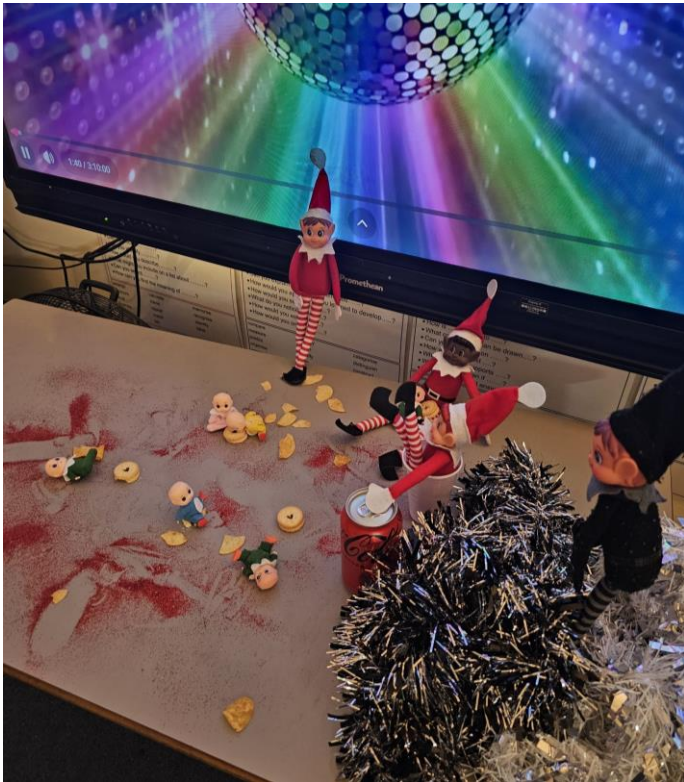

It looked like they invited all their family and friends to party too, even the babies!

Just as I went to grab them and tell them off for all the trouble they have been causing a new scary looking Elf flew in, so I had to hide 😞

All I heard was the Elves screaming, 'OH no its Tinsel tornado.'

Then in a flash he shot tinsel from his wrists, just like spiderman and sucked everything from the party into the tinsel. Even my fizzy drink and a dark tornado took over the disco ball!

Then the classroom fell silent, so I came out of hiding and just like that Tinsel Tornado disappeared without a trace!

BUT

I could see the cheeky Elves running away. They were just too quick for me!

Please keep your eyes peeled, we need to stop them creating more mischief!
