

The Naughty Elves Struck
Again!

Class 1A

You will never believe what happened this morning. As I opened our classroom door I saw crumbs of bagels on the floor. They lead me to our fruit basket and all our fruit had been eaten. Oh my gosh! The naughty elves are so greedy. 1A (Ms Ali's class) will not get to have a snack today.

- They were not scared they had the courage to sit on the fruit basket and laugh at me.

All of a sudden I heard someone cry hysterically. As a I looked at the reading area I found all the books had been thrown on the floor. At that point I saw a horrible sight. I witnessed Shadow and Tails tied up with Tinsel. Tails could not stop crying. The naughty elves left a cheeky message stating, “We wish you a terrible Christmas 1A. You can’t catch us na na na na!”

To Class 1A

We wish you have a terrible Christmas. You can't catch us, na na na na!

Love from the Naughty Elves

I tried to capture all of them but they were too fast. As quick as flash I heard the garden door open but before I could catch them they had escaped. I am mortified. Please help me catch the naughty elves. They need to feel the force law.

Ms Ali
