

Naughty Elves Spotted in
the Sunshine Hall!

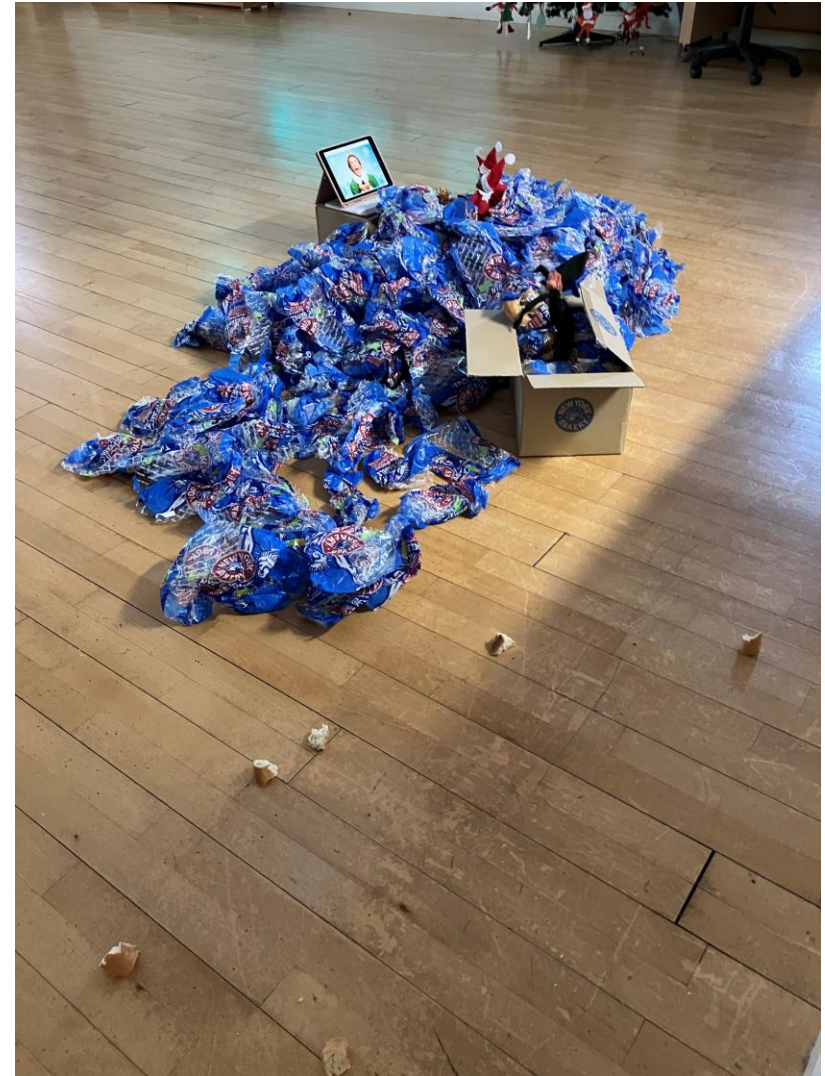

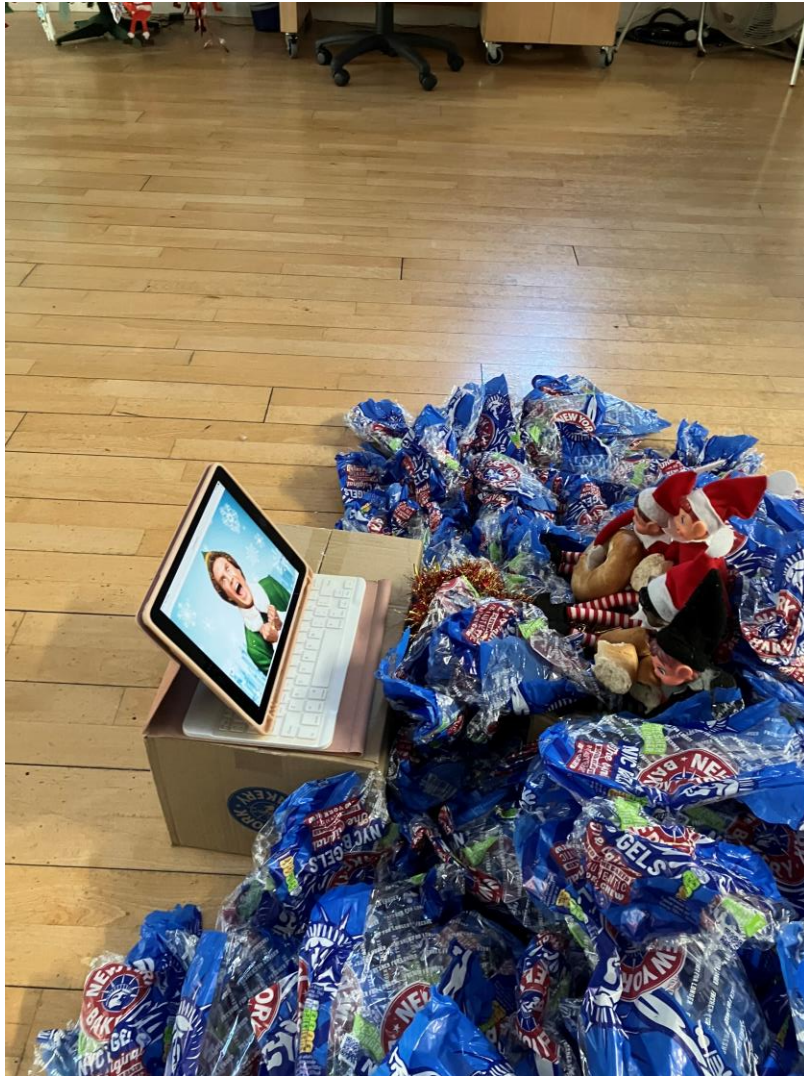

Poor Mrs Halliday
had such a shock
this morning.

She spotted a trail of bagels
when she went into the Sunshine
hall.

Those naughty elves had opened all the bagels and eaten them all up. They left such a mess!

When they saw Mrs Halliday they tried make a run for it.....

But they ran quite slow because they had eaten so many bagels!

Mrs Smallman spotted them too and joined in the chase but they climbed on the chicken coop and were gone!

Don't worry everyone, Miss Grove came in and sorted the bagels for our breakfast snack.

If you spot them children,

please don't send them to the office
..... I think they are too tired to chase elves anymore today!
