Over and Above Ticket

Maths Masters

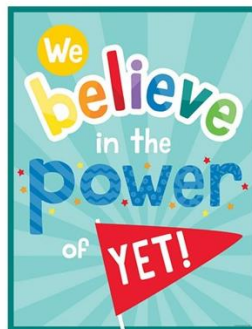

Our Core Values

Respecting One Another

The Importance of Respect (for others and for yourself)

A Growth Mindset

Our Shared Vision

A special place where children know how to keep themselves safe and healthy. They love learning and become:

Effective communicators

Responsible and caring citizens

Active contributors

Successful and independent learners

Confident and ambitious individuals

Our weekly awards assembly covers the following rights from the UN convention:

Article 2 (non discrimination)

The convention applies to every child without discrimination, whatever their ethnicity, sex, religion, language, abilities or any other status.

Article 29 (goals of education)

Education must develop every child's personality, talents and abilities to the full.

Children who have gone Over and Above...

Nominated by Mrs Moldrich:

They have been the office buddies this term and have helped out so much. They sorted all of the spare uniforms we have at the back of the hall.

They did such a fantastic job, and even after finishing the task they still come in every day to ask if I need any help.

They have both shown great initiative, kindness and responsibility, and they should be very proud of themselves.

Adults who have gone Over and Above...

Nomination for Mrs Goj-Ngjeci, for her flexibility, and patience when working with pupils within the ARP, as well as her support for staff.

Nomination for Mrs Ashman, for always being a supportive member of staff.

Nomination for one of our parents Mr Peter Byabazire
(parent of Jalen)
for supporting another parent.
